The Judge

- ★ Hears everyone's story and fits the pieces together like a puzzle until he understands the whole picture.
- ★ Decides if the accused is guilty or not.
- ★ Will sometimes ask the child questions.
- ★ Wears a dark red robe.

The Prosecutor

- ★ Helps the child do their job as a witness.
- ★ Asks the child questions in court about his or her case.
- ★ Wears a dark red robe.

The Clerk of the Court

- ★ Helps and sits near the judge.
- ★
- ★ Reads out the charge.

Wears a purple robe.

The Lawyers

- ★ The Accused and the child each will have a lawyer to speak on their behalf in court, and to give them advice about the case.
- ★ Your lawyer's job is to help you tell your story and protect you in the court. Both lawyers will ask you questions in court.
- ★ Wears a black robe.

The Accused

- ★ The person who the police have charged with breaking the law.

The Security Guard

- ★ Keeps everyone safe in court.
- ★ Wears a uniform.

The Witness

- ★ A person who must stand up in front of the judge and tell their side of the story. One witness may be the victim.

The Audience

★ People who have come to watch the trial.
